

REBELS ATTACK ANGELES TODAY

Attempt Made to Regain the Town.

ATTACK EASILY REPULSED BY THE AMERICANS.

Twelfth Infantry Pursue the Insurgents, Capturing Three of their Number—Enemy Approached Town on a Train with Two Engines—Late Victory Brings a Wide Stretch of Territory Under Our Control—President and Secretary of War Directs Organization of New Regiments.

Manila, Aug. 17.—[Special]—A force of eight hundred Filipinos attacked Angeles today in an attempt to regain the town from the Americans. The attack was easily repulsed and the Twelfth infantry pursued the insurgents, capturing three of their number.

In attacking Angeles the enemy approached on a train with two engines. The latter was ditched by the Americans.

Ten New Regiments. Washington, Aug. 17.—[Special]—The following was issued at the war department today: "Pursuant to instructions the president and secretary of war direct ten additional regiments of infantry volunteers be organized under the provisions of the act of congress approved March 2, 1889."

American Lose Two Killed. The insurgents were driven from the town and fled north, having lost 200 men in the engagement. The American loss was two killed and twelve wounded, including Lieut. Anglum.

One company of the Twelfth infantry had a little battle of its own at Dolores, southwest of Angeles, defeating an insurgent force of 200. One American was wounded.

Fighting Around Calulut. Manila, Aug. 17.—The Twelfth infantry left Calulut at sunrise Wednesday and advanced up the railway. Capt. Evans' battery deployed to the right of the track and Capt. Wood's to the left. Two companies remained on the track with the artillery. The insurgents were found well entrenched in front of the town, the trenches having been dug within a few days, and since the occupation of Calulut.

At a distance of 1,500 yards the Filipinos opened fire. Their force was estimated by Col. Smith at 1,500, although the residents afterward said it exceeded those figures by 1,000. The enemy sent heavy volleys against the whole American line. Most of their shooting, as usual, was high, but they concentrated their heaviest fire down the track upon the artillery. Col. Smith kept the whole line moving rapidly, with frequent rushes. The insurgents attempted to flank Capt. Evans, and therefore two companies were sent to the right and drove them back.

Enemy Forced to Retreat. Unable to stand our continuous volleys, the Filipinos abandoned the trenches and retreated through the town northward. It appears that they had only just received their supply of ammunition. Had they been attacked sooner they could have made little resistance.

The intense heat caused much suffering among the Americans. A reporter of the Manila Times, who was accompanying Col. Smith, was shot in the head, probably fatally. One American officer received a slight wound in the face. Lieut. Howland of Gen. Wheaton's staff, who knew the country thoroughly as the result of reconnaissances and who assisted in directing the movement, received a volley while riding across a field close to the trenches, but he escaped unharmed.

Extensive Region Occupied. Washington, Aug. 17.—Gen. Otis reports that MacArthur now occupies the country from Candaba to Angeles; thence to Porac, taking within his line Santa Rita, Guangua and Bacolor. This indicates that the American forces are now holding a territory of about 200 square miles right in the heart of the province of Pampanga.

This province, which is said to have a population of 250,000, has been thought the hottest of the insurrection, and has been supposed to be more particularly under the influence of the Tagals than any other in Luzon. MacArthur has not only carried the war into the heart of the enemy's country, but he proposes to stay there and extend his influence until the whole province is subjugated. The arrival of the re-enforcements now on the way will enable Gen. Otis to provide garrisons for the principal towns, and henceforth we will hold all that we obtain by force of arms.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY APPROVES. Ten New Regiments Are to Be Organized for the Philippines.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Formal orders will be issued soon, possibly today, by Secretary Root directing the organization of ten additional regiments for service in the Philippines. President McKinley has given his approval of Secretary Root's decision to organize this additional force and has approved his recommendation in the matter of regular army officers being selected for appointment as colonels and lieutenant colonels of the proposed regiments.

Simultaneously with the official announcement of the determination to increase the army by ten regiments, Secretary Root will announce the names of officers so far selected.

The result of the secretary's decision will be to give Gen. Otis a fighting force of 62,451 men. In addition to this force it is proposed to increase the hospital corps in the Philippines to 2,000 men, and the number of medical officers will be increased so that Gen. Otis will have an army of practically 65,000 men. With this number Secretary Root is confident—and his confidence is based upon reports from Gen. Otis—that the Manila commander will have a sufficient force to suppress the insurrection during the coming fall campaign.

The enlistment of the ten additional volunteer regiments will make the total volunteer force in service number 80,507 men, leaving but 4,493 men of the 35,000 authorized uncalled for, and the total strength of the army about 95,000 men. Secretary Root feels that there is no present necessity of calling out the 4,500 men remaining, but, should the conditions in the fall show that they can be advantageously employed, he will not hesitate to order their enlistment. The secretary feels that the war should be prosecuted with the utmost vigor, and he does not propose to leave any stone unturned at this end of the line to assure victory for the American forces.

First Colorado Arrives. San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17.—The transport Warren with the First Colorado regiment aboard arrived here Wednesday evening from Manila.

The regiment, commanded by Col. McCoy, returns with forty-six officers and 924 men, about 250 less than the number who sailed from San Francisco last year. Thirty-five enlisted in the Thirty-seventh regiment of volunteers being formed in the Philippines.

SIX LIVES WERE LOST

Ferry in Which a Family Were Riding, Sinks in White River, Near Waco, Ind.

Washington, Ind., Aug. 17.—[Special]—Albert Hensel, wife and four children and a Miss Dillon were crossing the White river on a ferry near Waco this morning, when the ferry sank. All but Hensel were drowned.

BURNSIDE IS OVERDUE

Fearful at Havana That the Vessels From New York, Ran Into the Hurricane.

Havana, Aug. 17.—[Special]—The transport Burnside from New York is now long overdue at this port, and it is feared the vessel ran into the hurricane. Tralmen Will Not Amalgamate. Peoria, Ill., Aug. 17.—The Order of Railway Telegraphers will leave Peoria and will step into new headquarters in the city of St. Louis on Sept. 20 of this year. This is an intimation that, for the time being, at all events, the idea of brotherhood centralization is a thing of the past. The Locomotive Firemen will remain in this city. The Locomotive Engineers will not leave Cleveland. The conductors stay in Cedar Rapids, and the telegraphers prefer St. Louis. The tralmen will go to Cleveland.

Have $50,000,000 to Buy Zion. Basle, Aug. 17.—The Russian and Galician delegates to the Zionist congress attacked Dr. Herzl and his assistants Wednesday on the report of the finance committee. Dr. Herzl replied at length, overwhelming the opposition and gaining enthusiastic applause. He says $50,000,000 have been pledged in favor of the Zionist project.

Gale Causes Disaster. Valparaiso, Aug. 17.—The terrific gales and heavy floods continue. Near Santiago de Chile a train fell into a river from a railway bridge and fifty persons were drowned. A house has been washed away here and its nine occupants were drowned.

Irish Catholics in Session. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 17.—The thirty-first annual convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent union of the United States and Canada began here Wednesday, with Daniel Duffy of St. Clair, Pa., president of the union, in the chair.

Take Refuge in Arbitration. Chicago, Aug. 17.—The strikes of the union brickmakers in the south side yards, that has for three weeks caused a partial cessation of building operations in the city, was yesterday settled by a resort to arbitration.

Rain Falls in India. Bombay, Aug. 17.—Some rain has fallen, but the condition of the crops is very unsatisfactory, especially in the Deccan district. The cultivators in Guzerat and Kathiaway are selling their cattle at two rupees a head.

Admiral Dewey Better. Leghorn, Aug. 17.—Admiral Dewey has recovered somewhat from his attack of fever and spent Wednesday morning on the deck of the Olympia.

HAVE NOT REPLIED TO THE ULTIMATUM

MATTERS ARE LOOKING VERY SERIOUS.

Transvaal Situation is Unchanged, According to All Obtainable Information—Boers Delay in Answer to Great Britain's Demand for a Joint Inquiry—Steamers Waiting Orders

London, Aug. 17.—The Transvaal situation is unchanged, according to all obtainable official information, but the continued delay of the Boer answer to Great Britain's demand for a joint inquiry as to the effect upon the natives of the proposed franchise-reform measures make matters look more serious.

The war office has completed its preparations for an emergency force of 30,000 men to be ready to leave within a week. Fast steamers for their transportation are waiting orders.

It is said that the grenadier guards, now at Gibraltar, and the Twenty-first lancers, now in Egypt, may be sent to South Africa, in addition to the other regiments which have already been ordered there.

Pretoria, Aug. 17.—The British agent here denies stories that fresh communications have been addressed by Great Britain to the Transvaal government, or that there have been any modifications of the British demands.

Kruger's Answer Ready.

Johannesburg, Aug. 17.—The government's reply to Mr. Chamberlain is ready and will probably be delivered to Sir Alfred Milner, British high commissioner in South Africa, before the end of the week.

London, Aug. 17.—The Pretoria correspondent of the Times says: "The ultimate adoption of Sir Alfred Milner's proposals is considered certain."

A PLEASANT TROLLEY PARTY

Given Last Evening by Miss Hallie Howard, and Assisted by Blanche Jaquish.

A trolley party was given last evening, by Miss Hallie Howard, assisted by Miss Blanche Jaquish, in honor of Miss Jessie Stewart of Edgerton. The hours between 7:30 and 10:30 were passed in a most delightful manner.

The guests were accompanied by the Orpheus club on the ride about the city, and sweet music was discoursed. After the tour the company proceeded to the home of Miss Howard's uncle and aunt, Alderman and Mrs. J. B. McLean, where supper was served on the lawn, which was handsomely decorated. Banks of beautiful flowers adorned the tables. The porch, upon which the Mandolin club sat, presented a pretty spectacle with its beautiful decorations of palms, screens, rugs and Japanese lanterns. The twenty-eight young people present enjoyed the evening in dancing on the lawn, cake walking and other amusements.

UP AGAINST THE REAL THING

It Was Milwaukee's Regular, Western Team Here Yesterday.

Quite a number of skeptical people thought that the regular Milwaukee League club was not here yesterday. For their information we will state that the Y. M. C. A. nine were up against the real thing with one exception. The catcher was from one of the Milwaukee City League clubs, but as he played without an error and made a base hit, did not weaken them to any extent. Barnes, the general utility man, played right field in place of Waldron, who was lame and sat on the bench. All the others were in their regular positions and played just as hard as they could against a League club. In fact it was a trying out of Adkins whom Manager Mack is anxious to secure, and with his reputation at stake, "Ad." had decided the best of it.

Dodge Out for Governor.

New Carlisle, Ind., Aug. 17.—A strong effort is being made to unite Thirteenth district republicans in support of the gubernatorial candidacy of James S. Dodge of Elkhart county. Indications point to an interesting struggle between Dodge, C. F. Griffin of Hammond and Senator Gilbert of Angola for control of the delegates from counties north of the Wabash. The candidate showing the greatest strength will probably receive recognition as the candidate of northern Indiana.

Flee from Passengers' Fire.

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 17.—Colorado & Southern train No. 1 was held up last night at Folsom, N. M., within two miles of the place where a hold-up occurred three weeks ago. Passengers returned the fire from the train and the robbers fled after delivering a volley. Mail Clerk Bartlett was shot through the jaw and it is feared he will bleed to death.

Secretary Hay Returns Home.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Secretary of State Hay, accompanied by his son, returned to his summer home in New Hampshire Wednesday.

President and Mrs. McKinley enjoyed their usual morning drive Wednesday, and after luncheon the entire presidential party went for a two hours' sail on the yacht Mariquita.

A WAUPUN PRISONER MAKES HIS ESCAPE

LARS L. WILSON GETS OUT BY MEANS OF LADDER.

Sentenced June 5, 1896, for Manslaughter, from Adams County—Racine Boys' Fall Victim to an Accident—Falsely Rumored Three Weeks Ago—News from Badgerdom.

Waupun, Wis., Aug. 17.—Lars L. Wilson, sentenced June 5, 1896, for manslaughter in the second degree from Adams county, escaped from state prison last night. He worked as a fireman in the boiler house and was missed about 10 o'clock from his post, although on duty a few minutes before that time.

By means of a short ladder used in oiling the shafting, which he placed against the outside shop wall, he managed to reach the wires running to the are light on the back wall, by means of which he climbed to the top of the wall, from which he let himself to the ground by a small rope.

Fourteen of the prison force were dispatched into the country about the prison immediately on discovering the escape, but no trace of him was discovered through the night. He is described as 22 years of age, height 5 feet 6 inches, ruddy complexion, light brown or hazel eyes, chestnut hair, erect build. Berillon measurements: 65.1, 64.0, 35.5; 19.0, 14.6, 6.6, 24.0, 10.3, 8.3, 43.3. Has probably grown since these measurements were taken three years ago. Indistinct vaccination scar above left elbow outside, small wart second phalanx third finger left hand, small wart third joint right index finger, rear. Is a painter by trade and at times mentally a little "off." Has corresponded with Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Coloma, Wis.; Mabel Robinson, Hancock, Wis.; S. Topping, Waukegan, Ill.

His time would have expired, counting his good time in June, 1900. One hundred dollars reward is offered for his arrest and detention.

A Strange Coincidence.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 17.—Three weeks ago Frank Rohlinger disappeared from his home at North Evanston. On Aug. 3 Coroner Stripple received a letter from the mother of the boy, inquiring if her son had been killed by the cars, such a rumor having reached her. No such boy had met with accident and the mother was so informed. Last night the police found a boy in a barn in the outskirts of the city. His face and head were cut and bruised, teeth knocked out and otherwise hurt. He told the officers that his name was Frank Ryan and that he was injured by falling off a freight train while stealing a ride from Beloit. His description answered to that of the missing Rohlinger boy and when close questioned he admitted that he was the boy. It is considered a peculiar circumstance that the mother should hear that the boy was killed by the cars here and then he should fall from a train three weeks later and nearly lose his life.

William Siebecker Dead.

Baraboo, Wis., Aug. 17.—William Siebecker, father of Judge Siebecker, died yesterday morning, aged 80.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 17.—Henry Turville, one of the oldest residents of Madison, died yesterday, aged 55. He came to Madison in 1852. He was a native of Alton, Hampshire, England, and came to America in 1849, and after a short stay in Ohio the family came to Madison where Mr. Turville remained till his death. He leaves a widow and three children. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

West Superior Strike Settled.

West Superior, Wis., Aug. 17.—Settlement of the Eastern Minnesota flour sheds strike was effected tonight. John Fromberger, who has had the contract from the railroad for handling flour at the sheds, retires, and the railroad will transact its own business. The men will secure the raise demanded, $2, instead of $1.70 a day, and 25 cents instead of 20 cents an hour for extra work. Business will resume tomorrow.

Preparing for Another Uprising.

Marquette, Wis., Aug. 17.—William Arsenau, a former Marquette boy, now living at Akely, near Leech Lake, Minn., writes that the Indians in that part of the country threaten another uprising and that the United States troops are making preparations to give them a warm reception if they make trouble again. Arsenau participated in the fighting against the Indians at their last uprising.

Rappe at Pittsburg.

Marquette, Wis., Aug. 17.—J. A. Rappe the veteran who is riding a bicycle to Philadelphia from Marquette, has reached Pittsburg and reports himself in good condition to finish the journey. He still has about 300 miles to make, but expects to arrive in plenty of time to attend the national encampment which convenes on Sept. 4.

Green Bay Women Injured.

Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 17.—Mrs. William Miller was accidentally shot through the arm last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Miller had been out shooting with a small target rifle and on returning the gun was laid on a table where it was touched and accidentally fired by a little girl who was visiting there. The bullet went almost through the arm, but broke no bones.

Wisconsin Pensions Granted.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 17.—Additional William Patterson, Bradville,

$6 to $8; William J. Pendleton, Mount Hope, $8 to $10; Pleny W. Broughton, Kendall, $8 to $10. Increase—Cyrus B. C. Nurch, Wisconsin Veterans home, Waupaca, $6 to $8. Michael Herman, West Bend, $6 to $8.

A Farmer Killed.

Watertown, Wis., Aug. 17.—William Krueger, a farmer, residing in the town of Lebanon was instantly killed yesterday morning. He was driving a team of horses and was thrown from the wagon loaded with grain. His skull was crushed.

Wausau Man Commits Suicide.

Wausau, Wis., Aug. 17.—Nicholas Marz, aged 60, while suffering from despondency, shot himself through the left breast with a 38-calibre Winchester rifle yesterday afternoon. He lived only a few minutes.

NO CIRCUS DAY THIEVING

At 3 O'clock Chief Hogan Had Heard of No Cases.

At 3 o'clock Chief Hogan reported that there had not been a case of circus day thieving reported, nor had there been the least disorder.

Detective Ryan, who accompanies the show, says the contrast is marked between today and yesterday. Yesterday in Oshkosh the town was full of shell men, pickpockets and sneak thieves.

SERENADE PRESIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Treated to Music By the Twenty Sixth Infantry Band.

Hotel Champlain, Aug. 17.—[Special]—President and Mrs. McKinley were serenaded by the Twenty Sixth Infantry band this morning. Later, the president and his wife went out driving.

Mrs. McKinley walked from her apartments to the carriage for the first time in three weeks. She is much better.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Aug. 17.—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin: Fair, warm tonight and Friday.

Milwaukee Wins Contest.

Detroit, Aug. 17.—Milwaukee was victorious in the contest for the next convention of the International Typographical union, by a vote of 84 to 78 for Birmingham, Ala.

A report from the committee on laws, favoring the levying of a special assessment upon members of not more than 50 cents in any three months by the executive council, whenever the strike fund of the union shall fall below $20,000 precipitated a deal of debate. Amendments fixing the proposed assessment at 10 cents a month, and at 25 cents every three months were argued upon and voted down. The original committee recommendation was then adopted after much argument.

Cotton Development in South.

Cotton manufacturing in the South has witnessed a phenomenal growth during the last few months. Special reports show (1) that fifty new cotton mills are being built or have been projected during this period, involving an estimated outlay of about $11,500,000 and the employment of approximately 700,000 new spindles; (2) that thirty-nine established concerns are making or will make enlargements at an estimated cost of $5,000,000, and employing 400,000 new spindles. This means that in the short space of five months definite provisions have been made for about $17,000,000 new capital and about 1,100,000 new spindles to be added to the productive capacity of the South. Much the larger portion of this expansion takes place in South Carolina and North Carolina.

Machine Blower for Glass Working.

A new invention threatens to put the blowpipe out of date as the symbol of the glassworking fraternity. The new machine makes bottles, fruit jars, lamp chimneys and all similar wares four or five times as fast as they can be made by hand and leaves no seam such as is the mark of the ordinary mold. It takes the glass, presses it into a blank, carries it along to the mold and blows the finished article with the regularity of a clock, at the rate of about nine articles a minute. Only four men and one or two small boys are required to operate a machine, and it is this that is frightening the glass workers with loss of work and promising a revolution in that branch of the glass business.

First American Built Steamers.

Competition continued keen between America and this country. The government of the United States guaranteed a considerable sum per voyage to the steam vessels of the company that was being promoted by the well-known E. K. Collins of New York. All this signified fresh struggles and new departures in the science of shipbuilding. The Collins steamers were about 3,000 tons register and 800 horsepower; they were built chiefly of live oak, and the fabrics were strengthened by a lattice-work of iron bands. They are said to have been beautiful models. One of them, the Arctic, was known as the Clipper of the Seas. This steamer was built by W. H. Brown of New York, under the superintendence of George Steers, who modeled the famous yacht America—Pall Mall.

PICQUART BEFORE THE COURT-MARTIAL

Testimony Favors Captain Dreyfus.

BERULUS ALSO BELIEVES ACCUSED IS INNOCENT.

Prisoner Listens to the Testimony with a Look of Extreme Gratitude on His Countenance—General Roget Finishes His Testimony Cut Short by Yesterday's Adjournment—Nothing But a Long Speech, and Closed with an Argument with Demange.

Rennes, Aug. 17.—[Special]—Today, for the first time the court-martial listened to testimony in favor of Capt. Dreyfus.

Picquart and Bertulus, before the examining magistrate, both gave grounds this morning for the belief that the accused was innocent.

Gen. Roget finished his testimony cut short by yesterday's adjournment. His testimony was nothing but a long speech and closed with a long argument with Demange. The witness is losing some of his assurance.

Picquart asked how Dreyfus could know the military secrets which were betrayed when he (Picquart) as the chief of the intelligence bureau did not know them and which could have been known only in the bureau or by Du Paty de Clam. This last remark caused a sensation.

The court here adjourned until tomorrow, when Picquart will continue his testimony.

Repeated Henry's Confession.

Next came Bertulus. He repeated his testimony before the court of cassation, including Henry's famous confession to him when he begged us to "save him for the honor of the army." Bertulus testified that Henry was entirely in Esterhazy's hands. He told how he had examined the evidence in the case and concluded by saying that there was absolutely no indication of Dreyfus' guilt. The witness was absolutely convinced that the prisoner was innocent.

Suspicious of Esterhazy's Guilt.

The next witness was Picquart. He told of his connection with the case and of his early suspicion of Esterhazy's guilt. He promised to tell some things not previously revealed. Dreyfus listened to him with a look of extreme gratitude on his countenance.

Passes Restless Night.

Rennes, Aug. 17.—[Special]—Labori passed the night in fever, the X-ray operation made him restless. The physicians are undecided about probing for the bullet.

MAITRE LABORI GROWS WORSE.

Wounded Lawyer Is Offered Sympathy of Noted Frenchmen.

Rennes, France, Aug. 17.—Fernand Labori, Dreyfus' counsel, who is lying at the residence of Prof. Basch, suffered a change for the worse yesterday afternoon. A slight fever has returned.

The latest bulletin issued is as follows: "The condition of the patient is satisfactory, in spite of slight fever. The X-ray has shown that the bullet traversed the skin, subcutaneous cellular tissue and muscles around the spinal column, flattening against the right side of the fifth or sixth dorsal vertebrae."

Mrs. Labori is beginning to feel the effects of the nervous shock and fatigue.

The premier, Waldeck-Rousseau, has telegraphed to the sufferer expressing his sincere grief and expressing hopes of his recovery.

Emile Zola has telegraphed, saying: "On learning of the outrage I send you the expression of my indignant anger. My heart is full of tenderness and admiration for you."

German Press Aroused.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—The refusal to adjourn the Rennes trial pending the recovery of Attorney Labori is severely commented upon here. Capt. Dreyfus is compared to a man in the stocks—at the mercy of anybody choosing to pelt him and without means of self-defense.

Reed May Lead New Party.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The anti-imperialists who are credited with forming the "continental republican party," will try to get ex-Speaker Reed to accept a nomination for president from them, or if they cannot get him to join them, some other distinguished republican will be nominated. It is said that they have strong faith in their ability to carry all the New England states, except Vermont, for an anti-imperialist ticket. It is asserted that they have communicated with Mr. Reed on the subject, but this may not be true.

JOINS THE GREAT MAJORITY.

Leon Leroy Thornton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan M. Thornton are mourning the death of their infant son, Leon Leroy, who passed away last evening at the home of his parents, 206 North Bluff street, aged three and one half months. His death was caused by stomach trouble.

THEATRICAL SEASON OPENS NEXT MONDAY

CARTER'S MELODRAMA, "THE HEART OF CHICAGO."

A Sensational Play with Wonderful
Scenic Productions—Manager Myers Secures a Good List of Attractions for 1899-1900—Promise From Leading Artists.

The theatrical season in Janesville for 1899-1900 will open at Myers Grand Opera house next Monday evening,
August 21, with the appearance of Lincoln J. Carter's melodrama, "The Heart of Chicago." This production is a melodrama, highly sensational and the scenery is the best that man can devise.

The scene of the moving train is nearer perfection of the kind ever attempted.
In this scene the train is in view for ten minutes and is first observed as a mere speck in the distance, finally arriving at the footlights full sized. The engine is as real as it is possible for a stage engine to be and is manned by a crew of real live men. There are many other scenic productions worthy of individual mention. A few of them are:

The Masonic Temple Roof garden, the monster panoramic view of the South side at night, the Columbus fountain, the World's Fair Court of Honor during a night illumination, the typical Chicago street scene and the fire scene showing a section of Chicago before, during and after the great fire.

Manager Myers is indeed fortunate in securing such a worthy attraction to open the theatrical season.

This is the same play and the same company which opened the opera house so successfully last season.

The local manager is not only fortunate in securing this high class company for the opening of the theatrical season, but he has booked a large number of excellent attractions for the coming season. Mr. Myers has also promised from such artists as Otis Skinner, Roland Reed and Walker Whiteside that they will give him a date as soon as they complete their arrangements in the large cities.

Remember the season opens next Monday night, Aug. 21, with Lincoln
J. Carter's "Heart of Chicago." Other engagements secured thus far are as follows:

Aug. 25—Oliver Scott's Minstrels.
Aug. 26—Alfred Busby's "Mr. Plaster

IOWA DEMOCRATS NOMINATE.

Fred E. White Named for Governor—
The Full Ticket.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 17.—The democratic party of Iowa, in its state convention Wednesday, endorsed unequivocally and unreservedly the Chicago national platform of 1896, in whole and in detail, and adopted resolutions favoring W. J. Bryan of Nebraska for president in 1900. The convention then denounced the war in the Philippines as a "repudiation of American doctrine," and as inspired by Great Britain to bring about an Anglo-American alliance.

Expansion was declared to mean militarism, and militarism the death of democratic institutions. Trusts were denounced as ruinous to business, and declared to be created by a protective tariff. Convict labor by contract was declared an evil, and an amendment of the convict law was asked. The state and national administrations of the republican party were condemned for "weakness and inefficiency." The following ticket was nominated: Governor, Fred E. White of Keokuk county; lieutenant governor, L. M. Bevis of Ringgold; Supreme court judge, A. Van Wagener of Woodbury; railway commissioner, W.
H. Calhoun of Marshall county; superintendent of public instruction, P. B.
Holst of Boone county.

The platform as adopted makes the war in the Philippines the main issue, but the leaders of the party declare that the endorsement of the Chicago platform, "in whole and in detail," means 16 to 1 and nothing else.

Cato Sells, the conservative candidate for governor, withdrew in favor of Fred E. White, who is a radical 16 to 1 man. On the question of fusion with the populists, the convention, after bitter opposition speeches by Secretary Charles Walsh of the national committee and E. M. Carr of the state central committee, decided to fuse to the extent of giving the populists representation on one place on the ticket—that of railroad commissioner. In return the populist convention in session indorsed the democratic ticket and platform.

Fred E. White, who ran for governor
two years ago, was nominated again because the silver element would not unite on Cato Sells of Vinton, who was the candidate of the conservative element. White had not sought the nomination. The silver men insisted that a straight 16 to 1 man be chosen.
They supported S. H. Beshor of Waterloo. Neither Beshor nor Sells could unite the factions. T. Genung of Mills county, A. C. Daly of Marshalltown, and John F. Dougherty of Keokuk were also candidates. The leading candidates agreed to withdraw and support White. Genung made the nominating speech. Beshor and Wells seconded it and withdrew their names.
But the delegates would not be appeased, and a roll call was demanded and the motion carried. On the informal ballot the vote stood 742 for White, 192 for Sells and 84 for Beshor, with a few scattering votes for the other candidates. The nomination of White was then made unanimous. For the other offices there were no exciting contests.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played Yesterday in the Two Leading Leagues.

Baltimore easily defeated Chicago yesterday. The Colonels did not so much mind the result of their second game of the double header with Boston, for they shut out the locals in the first. Thirteen was an unlucky number for Cleveland at Brooklyn, and Pittsburg trounced the Senators. New York got a batting streak, checking Cincinnati for the moment at least, and Philadelphia was glad St. Louis came. The scores:

At Baltimore—
Baltimore 0 0 1 2 0 2 1 *—6
Chicago 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 —1

At New York—
New York 2 0 0 0 1 1 3 *—7
Cincinnati 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 —2

At Brooklyn—
Brooklyn 2 2 3 0 4 2 0 *—13
Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 —2

At Boston—
Louisville 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 —3
Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 —0

Second game—
Boston 1 0 5 4 0 1 0 1—12
Louisville 1 3 0 0 0 0 1 0—5

At Philadelphia—
Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 4 2 2 0—9

EPWORTH LEAGUERS MEET IN LINE CITY

JANESVILLE DISTRICT CONVEN-TION HELD THERE.

The Eleventh Annual Gathering Opens
This Evening with a Reception and Lecture by Dr. William A. Quayle, an Author of Reputation—Complete Program.

The Janesville District Epworth League convention at Beloit this week, beginning tonight and continuing until Sunday, promises to be the best of the many helpful ones that have been held in the district. It is the eleventh annual meeting and the Beloit society has arranged for great things. The meeting will be a decided social and literary success.

Dr. Wm. A. Quayle, who lectures on
"Jean Val Jean" will open the convention this evening. He is an author and orator of international reputation and those who have heard him praise him highly. The Epworth Quartette, of Delavan, has earned a great reputation at the Delavan Assembly and its musicale Friday evening will be a treat. The quartette includes Mrs. Margaret Hollister Lowe, first soprano; Mrs. Clara Henderson, second soprano; Mrs. Beattie Weeks, first alto, and Miss Grace Burrows, second alto. The quartette will be assisted by Mrs. J. B. Day, Mrs.
H. A. Moehlebach and Miss Penn
Penke.

The programs of the day sessions include many talented people. Besides the regular attractions, little Marguerite Roberts of this city, will sing tomorrow afternoon. Many are planning to attend from this city. Tickets to Beloit

Come from enriched, well nourished soil, giving the result of perfect growth. The same result can be obtained by humanity in general, if they look after the blood,
the life of the whole system.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one specific remedy for this, as it transforms poor blood into perfect blood—from which follows the greatest of blessings, good health.

Eczema—"Since I was a child I

CAUGHT IN CUPID'S MESHES.

Rourke-Bliss

A very pretty home wedding occurred at No. 253 Locust street last evening. Etta, youngest daughter of Mrs. Jean Bliss, was happily united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Michael J. Rourke of this city. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few of the relatives and friends being present. Rev. W. W. Woodside, pastor of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Dora Henschel of Watertown, Wis., as bridesmaid, and Marjo Bliss of this city, acted as best man. Following the ceremony and the hearty congratulations extended, a bounteous wedding supper was served. The happy bride was presented with many souvenirs of the occasion, in the way of costly gifts. The bride has, for the past seven years, been employed in the Rock River Woolen Mills. She is a granddaughter of Michael Mathias, one of the early settlers of the town of Rock. The groom formerly resided in Elgin, Ill., and for two years was a valuable employee in the Rock River Cotton Company's mill.

The bride and groom have a wide circle of friends who join in wishing them all the happiness and prosperity the most sanguine could anticipate. They will take no wedding trip and will go right to housekeeping at No. 154 North Academy street.

The following were present at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt and daughter, Rockford, Ill.; William Welch and family, and John Rourke and family of Elgin, Ill.; Miss Dora Henschel, Watertown, Wis.; Frederick Mathias and wife, Hanover; Clinton D. Shoemaker, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Mathias, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mathias, town of Rock; and Frank Mathias and family, Misses Annie Rourke and Tess Nolan, Mrs. J. Green and daughter and Marjo Bliss of this city.

Mulgwin-Flood.

Yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock at St. Mary's church, occurred the marriage of Miss Minnie Flood, eldest daughter of Mrs. Bridget Flood, of the town of Harmony and John Mulgwin of this city. Rev. Father Rivers tied the nuptial knot.

The bride is a young lady highly spoken of by a large circle of friends. The groom is in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern railway company as a locomotive fireman.

The newly married pair will return to Janesville after a short wedding trip, and be at home to their friends, who extend best wishes to them.

'TIS RINGLING DAY IN THE BOWER CITY

MONSTER CROWDS THROG JANESVILLE'S STREETS.

No Newspaper Article Necessary to Convince the People That the World's Largest Circus is in Town—Thousands View the Grand Street Pageant—The Performance.

It requires no newspaper article to convince the people that the circus is in town. The first section of Ringling circus train arrived this morning at 6 o'clock over the Northwestern road from Oshkosh and throngs of curiosity seekers evidently stayed up all night in order to be on hand at the peep of dawn to see the train come and the unloading progress and many were forced to a prolonged wait. The crowds upon the streets waiting anxiously for the street parade, the numerous strangers in town, the general desire of everybody to take a "day off" and see the animals and performance, all went to show that the circus had arrived and has as many and more attractions for the public as ever. Young and old went to the fair grounds where the city of tents was expected to be built. After the arrival of the trains bringing the largest aggregation of the kind in the world to Janesville, the scene of activity began. There was a hustle and bustle among the thousand employees as the work of hoisting the huge tents started. With clock like regularity, every man at his place, the great canvases were elevated, and in a few minutes a tented city was realized.

The Great Street Parade. The next great event after the arrival of the cars was the street parade. Milwaukee and Main streets were jammed with spectators as the long and seemingly endless pageant swept down the main thoroughfares. The parade is certainly a free show in itself and strictly up-to-date. The equipment is bright and new and there is nothing that savors of ancient years or even last season. At the head of the column rode Albert A. Ringling, the elder of the brothers, whose efforts of a lifetime have been directed toward the up-building of the big show. He was followed by a procession of attractive features a mile in length, including six bands, one mounted, a chime of bells, open barreled caissons of wild beasts, a herd of camels, elephant artillery, a troop of lancers, equestrians galore, clowns in abundance, Mother Goose floats, drawn by Shetland ponies, a troop of Japanese jugglers, a dozen trick elephants, who marched along with ponderous solemnity, the trunk of each curled around the tail of his predecessor, the parade concluding with that without which a circus is not a circus—the steam callopie.

Rich Musical Organizations. And the bands. Never were so many seen on the streets at one time. The circus appears to be rich in musical organizations, having a separate band for every feature. The mounted band made a great hit. It was composed of excellent musicians mounted on well drilled cavalry horses. Every one agrees that it was the most complete street parade ever seen in Janesville.

An immense audience attended the afternoon performance. After looking over the extensive menagerie with its myriad of attractions, the thousands entered the big main tent, and for two hours enjoyed the long program of attractions. Features there were many. To enumerate them would be impossible in a short space. The performance is given in three rings and an elevated stage. Thus there are four acts going on at a time. The whole performance goes with a tilt and a swing that is attractive in itself, even if the spectator does miss some of it.

"Last Days of the Century."

But to mention some of the bright, particular features. The introductory pageant is one of the most brilliant. It concludes with a patriotic spectacle entitled "The Last Days of the Century." In this are introduced representatives of many of the armies of the world, each with its own band. There are British guards, French infantry and French zouaves, German riflemen, American rough riders and American Jack Tars, and finally Uncle Sam, Columbia and Cuba in a pleasing little tableau.

The De Coma family perhaps scored the greatest hit in the acrobatic specialties. Three women and three men in evening costume give a marvelous performance, the high collars of the men and the long skirts of the women seeming not to bother them at all. Later the same family appears in a daring aerial act, doing flying double somersaults high in the air. The flying Fishers do a similar startling act in another part of the tent at the same time.

Remarkable 61 Horse Act.

The 61 horse act of John O'Brien is another remarkable act. This famous equestrian, mounted on a beautiful horse, mounts a high platform which contains three terraces. On the terraces and in the ring below sixty-one beautiful horses maneuver in a graceful and intricate manner, controlled only by Mr. O'Brien's voice.

Did you ever see a three ton elephant stand on his head? There are several in the three herds of performing elephants with the circus who do this. They also waltz, walk across the ring on their hind legs, play upon hard organ, bass drums and horns. The programs say that they indulge in "leachavalian revels." Perhaps they do. Anyhow, they do all kinds of astonishing things.

There are any number of specialty numbers on the program. One of them is performed by Joseph La Fleur, who drops head first from a lofty ladder and narrowly escapes breaking his neck in a number of ingenious manners.

There are 17 clowns in the circus, not including a dog who is not billed. They are actually humorous at times. The dog does not seem to belong to the crowd, but he breaks in now and then and makes himself felt. When he seizes a clown or some of their apparatus he refuses to let go and has to be carried off.

Trapeze and Ring Acts Good.

The trapeze and flying ring acts are all singularly good. Miss Millie Turner does one in the center of the tent that causes the audience to gasp. Standing erect in her trapeze with no safeguarding net below her, without touching the ropes, swings swiftly from side to side, backward and forward, and then with a zigzag motion, retaining her balance perfectly the while.

There are many famous riders on the show, among them Miss Ada Castello, who makes her horse buck, jump, kick and walk erect, while she, attired in a conventional long skirted costume, calmly retains her seat.

The hippodrome races are all exciting. One unique feature is a race between English and whippet hounds.

The press agent this morning when asked by a Gazette representative if the evening performance was slighted, replied, "Not in a hundred. Ringling boys are not doing that kind of business. I can assure you just as good a performance this evening as the afternoon."

Things We Couldn't Help See.

All the morning trains brought record breaking crowds to the city today. On the C. & N. W. St. Paul road, four hundred tickets were sold from Monroe and Mineral Point; three hundred from Edgerton, Stoughton and Milton; two hundred and thirty from Milwaukee; White-water and other points on that division, and one hundred and fifty from Beloit and Rockford.

D. W. Watt was easily the most popular man on the grounds today. He has a host of friends among the showmen and, "Hello Dave," was heard on every hand. Many of the men, worked under him when he was treasurer of the Forepaugh show.

The crooks had evidently heard of our efficient police force, for if there were many on hand they laid low and waited for the next town.

Thousands of people came in from the surrounding country in carriages, and the roads leading into the city were lined with them during the forenoon.

Several farmers who thought they knew their horses, found that they didn't when the circus struck town.

Spencer Alexander, better known as "Delavan," and who was for several years with Burr Robbins, has entire charge of the stock with the show. Mr. Alexander is accompanied by his wife on his travels.

Bob Mink, the assistant boss hostler, was for several seasons with the Forepaugh show. He is one of the best in the business.

George Gaudin, the band leader, is a finished musician as is evidenced by the excellent work of the men under him.

George Gray, an old Janesville boy, plays first clarinet in one of the bands. Chas. Randall furnished for the stock, five tons of hay, two tons of straw and one hundred and fifty bushels of oats.

William Fay, the master of transportation got his early education in the business from Burr Robbins. He is a hustler.

Two of the Ringling brothers are building elegant residences at Baraboo.

The show is in Monroe tomorrow and in Freeport, Ill., Saturday.

Mike Turnour, the balancing trapeze artist, is said to be the best in the business.

Exactly 1,023 tickets were sold to Janesville on the St. Paul road from the nearby towns.

All the trains on the C. & N. W. road today, ran extra coaches, which were packed with people.

The delivery horse of H. S. Johnson, took fright at the elephants, when the show was unloading, and ran from East street to the Myers house where it was caught. The wagon was considerably damaged.

Another View of Parade. The following is handed The Gazette for publication:

"The crowds of fresh air seekers that patrol Milwaukee street every Wednesday and Saturday nights are, in race course parlance, not one to twenty-four with the aggregation that watched Ringling Bros' circus parade this morning."

"At 11 o'clock the first wagon of the procession containing a portion of Ringling Bros' music makers swung around the corner of the Grand Hotel and started down Milwaukee street."

"The usual concourse of bears, lions, tigers, wild hyenas and other ferocious denizens of the forest and desert, securely locked in their iron barred wagon-cages, followed in the wake of the band."

"The portion of the parade that most amused the younger generation of Janesville and vicinity was the statue portrayal of famous characters in fiction. First came Robinson Crusoe and his good savage Friday. A wagon of Palmer Cox' brownies—the dude with the stove pipe hat and all the rest of the brownie family. Then little Red Riding Hood with her wolf kneeling in subjection before her. And the little lady was unusually conspicuous this morning, because for some reason she now wears a golden hood instead of the red one she wore four or five hundred years ago."

Another feature was the wagon of ponderous bells upon which was rendered the very airy two-step and cake walk of "A Georgia Camp Meeting," and but for the selection, which perhaps some of Janesville's reverends would not approve, one might have thought that all the churches in the city had loaned their chimneys."

SHULKILL coal pleased many people last year. Its just as good this season. F. A. Taylor & Co.

MILWAUKEE WORKED HARD FOR VICTORY SUCCEEDED IN CAPTURING YESTERDAY'S GAME.

Brewers Have Come and Gone, and the Fence at Athletic Park Still Remains Intact—The Score Was Held Down to 2 to 0—Janesville Team Did Well.

The Milwaukee Western League base ball club has come and gone and the fence at Athletic park still remains intact, none of those long drives that we have read about, having touched the boards; neither were they disturbed by the hurdling of our outfielders after home run hits. Mr. Adkins occupied a conspicuous place in the center of the stage and his part seemed to be the prevention of his opponent from hitting the ball in the center, in which he was eminently successful.

But Adkins is not a bad fellow. In other respects he was as courteous to the Milwaukee players as was some of his support, but he was exceedingly liberal when on the bases. If the La Prairie Stars or Base Creek Blues had been the Y. M. C. A.'s opponents, they would not have scored a run when darkness set in, but either the reputation of the Milwaukee club, the large crowd in attendance, or the rooting from the grand (?) stand—perhaps a little of each—caused nervousness on the part of a few of the players, Allen in particular having a severe attack of the jingles. The Milwaukee nine, however, played a fast and perfect fielding game, which coupled with the unlucky batting of our boys did the business, resulting in a complete shut out.

This is the way the runs were made. In the third inning, Check, the first man up, reached first on a low throw of Brown, badly handled by Sickles. Barnes bunted to Adkins who fumbled, and then threw high over second base. Shoch placed a safe bunt that Brown would have got to first in time if he had not been playing close to third on account of second and first being occupied. With three men on bases, Cougalton struck out, and Weaver hit a slow grounder that Adkins should have fielded home, but which Allen ran in for and fumbled long enough to lose the man at home, but retired the batter at first. Gray retired in the same manner and the suspense was over. If Mack's men had batted a little bit better it would have been a disastrous inning for Janesville. Shoch opened the fifth inning with a base hit. Cougalton bunted a little fly to Adkins. Weaver went out on a fly to Kuntz, and Gray put another one over in right just inside the foul line which a fast fielder should have reached on the fly, but Shoch scored on the hit and Gray was touched out at third on the throw in. The eighth was the only other dangerous inning. After Weaver had gone out, Brown to Sickles—close decision Gray received Adkins' first pass to first. Stafford sent a fly to center field, which was just dropping into Downs' hands, when he slipped and fell, and Stafford gets the credit of a two base hit when it should have been an easy out. Viox sent another in the same direction, which Downs caught and by a quick throw prevented Gray from scoring. Kubosky hit a short one to right fielder, leaving two men on bases.

And this is the nearest the Y. M. C. A. boys came to getting a run. Brown opened the third inning with a pretty base hit, and Kuntz followed with another. Allen hit a hot grounder straight at short stop, who threw to second, and he to first making a fast double play. Mc-Masters hit another in the same place, leaving Brown on third—a very hard luck inning. In the eighth, Downs, the first batter up made a nice base hit, and Brown played the game with a sacrifice bunt. Then Kuntz drove a long fly between left and center, which Cougalton caught after a long run. It was very close to a three bagger. Allen drove another one to short and the prospects were faded. But it was a good game and our boys did remarkably well to hold them down to two runs. If Allen had not fumbled the ball with three men on bases, Kuntz had caught that fly in right field, and changed the direction of his hit a few feet, the score would have been 1 to 0 in favor of Janesville, but here is the score.

CLAM CHOWDER.—To half peck of clams allow one quart of potatoes (diced thin), a 2 inch cube of fat salt pork, one onion, one teaspoonful of salt, pepper, one large tablespoonful of butter, one quart of milk and six butter crackers. When the clams have steamed and removed from their liquor and are cool enough to handle, take them from their shells and remove the thin skins, then with the scallop cut off all the black end, leaving the soft part whole. Let the clam liquor settle; use half clam liquor and half water. Fry the pork and onions together, and the potatoes, which have been soaked and scalded, and boiling water to cover. When the potatoes are soft, add the clam liquor, the seasoning and the clams. When warmed through, add the hot milk.

Oleson at first base yesterday. The Milwaukee manager scored him two errors and Brown none.

Brown hit the first ball pitched every time at bat; the first was a nice line base hit, the second a line fly to Weaver, and the third a nice sacrifice bunt.

Kuntz was strong at the bat but weak in the field. Some of the Milwaukee players wondered how the Y. M. C. A. could beat Watertown. If they had fielded as well yesterday as they did against Watertown the Milwaukeeans would probably be wondering why they did not get a run.

Adkins did some wild and untamed base running. Not a batter hit by pitched ball and only one base on balls by each pitcher. And Blakeley still has a clean fielding score.

Allen had a sore finger and his quick and accurate handling of the ball after fumbling, saved him from several errors.

The carriages should not be allowed so close to the foul line in right field.

There was a large and very appreciative audience in attendance, the gate receipts being close to $200.

ACCIDENT AT THE CIRCUS GROUNDS

NINE-YEAR-OLD BOY RUN OVER BY CARRIAGE.

Son of Frank A. Banker of Riverview Park—Close Call to a Serious Accident This Afternoon—Rendered Unconscious by the Blow—Taken to Doctor's Office.

There was a close call to a serious accident at the circus grounds shortly before 2 o'clock today, when the nine-year old son of Frank A. Banker of Riverview park, was run over by a four horse team hitched to a carriage.

The little fellow started to run across the track, just as Nelson Bros' heavily loaded vehicle approached. He was struck by the first pair of horses and knocked to the ground, but luckily was not stepped upon. He was rendered unconscious by the blow, however, and those who saw the accident thought he was killed.

He was picked up and carried down town to the office of Dr. James Gibson who applied restoratives, and soon had him all right. The only injury he sustained beside the scare he received, was a large lump on the side of his head.

The mother of the boy, who was with him at the time, declared that the wagon ran over him, but an examination failed to reveal any broken bones. The escape was indeed a most fortunate one.

MURPHY'S TEAM WAS SCARED

Serious Accident Narrowly Averted This Afternoon.

A serious accident was narrowly averted at the head of East Milwaukee street this afternoon. As Con Murphy's sprinkling team stood at the hydrant a newspaper blew across the street. The horses jumped and it looked as if the heavy wagon would be swept down the hill dashing carriages in every direction. Just in the nick of time the horses were turned and brought up short against a tree in front of the Myers residence. The front of the wagon was somewhat shattered but otherwise no damage was done.

WM. LYONS BADLY INJURED

Well-Known Farmer of Otter Creek Hurt in Runaway.

Wm. Lyons, a resident of Otter Creek, was badly injured in a runaway accident this afternoon. His horse, ran away on the Milton avenue road, about three-quarters of a mile out of town. He was thrown violently to the ground, striking heavily on his face, which was frightfully bruised and cut. When found, he was unconscious and had apparently been laying by the roadside for some time.

Some New Delicacies...

Buffet Sausage, put up in cans, 10c. These sausages are like the regular Frankfurts only of a more delicious flavor and are put up in pickle making a very fine lunch or picnic article. If you taste them you will buy them.

Corned Cod Fish. In large tins, 15c. The idea has been to give you cod fish as near like they are when they come fresh caught off the coast. This fish certainly is delicious. It is not salt but fresh and is all ready to serve hot with boiled potatoes and egg sauce.

Lake Ciscoes. In tin cans, 10c. This delicious lunch article is packed in tomato sauce and is becoming very popular. It is far ahead of other canned fish of its sort.

An Extra Special. S. W. & Co.'s Eagle Brand Coffee, 10c lb. A fine coffee at a very low price—new lot.

SOME SAYINGS AND DOINGS OF THE PLAYERFOLK.

ADA REHAN'S ILLNESS.
GILBERT AND
NAT GOODWIN.

Speaking of the chorus of our particular time, that entertaining gossip, Hillary Bell, thus contrasts the fortunes of the male chorister and the female chorister:

"Chorus girls receive no better wages than are paid to chorus men, but they possess some ingenious and insatiable gift of investment which enables them, like Shylock, to divide every ducat into three thousand ducats, and this economic system of division allows these lovely ladies, as the Free Masons say, to take heed and govern themselves accordingly. No mathematician since Euclid's time can explain how a chorus girl earning $15 a week can pay $100 a month for an apartment and ride in the park in her own carriage. Yet such seemingly impossibilities are accomplished frequently by the fair. The comeller and younger, therefore, apparently less thrifty they are, the more value they extract from money, for it is an occult and inexplicable fact that a withered chorister can stretch her salary no further than its usual purchasing power, while a fresh and beautiful lass may live at the rate of $20,000 a year on $60 a month. A certain fascinating young creature in one of our shows gives her cook more than she earns at the theater, yet she is never behind with her rent for fashionable apartment. She goes to Paris every summer for her gowns, keeps a carriage, and owns more diamonds than her salary would pay for in two centuries. Further than these instances of careful investment, it is often observed that chorus girls can remain out of employment for a long time without apparent diminution of income and on three months' engagement at $15 a week they can spend $16,000 during the remainder of the year."

This illustrates the difference between the theatrical and any other business. By diligence, ambition and honest purpose an apprentice to trade can raise himself into partnership. But, with two exceptions, our theaters declare no instance of male choristers escaping from the oblivion of their craft. De Wolf Hopper made his first venture on the stage in the chorus of Harrigan & Hart's theater comique. It was at that time the vogue of people of fashion to find odd entertainment with the Irish comedians, and on one occasion Adelina Patti attended their performance. The fine ear of the prima donna was caught by certain notes in the chorister's voice, and when the play was ended she went behind the scenes to urge young Hopper to study for opera. Harrigan and Hart, pleased as Punch at the concession of the famous diva, immediately discovered that in one of their despised supernumeraries they had been entertaining a basso angel unware, and they raised Hopper's salary and opportunities on the spot. Young Dabney, engaged for the huntsman's chorus of "As You Like It" at Daly's, developed such an excellent voice that Maurice Grau carried him to the Metropolitan, where he secured the patronage of Jean de Reszke, and from $15 a week at Daly's he has now reached $200 a night in London. Dabney has changed his name to D'Aubigny and is singing Faust, Lohengrin, Romeo and other tenor roles with great success in England. No other rapid rises from the male chorus are chronicled in the annals of our stage. Of all sad songs by word or pen the saddest are sung by chorus men.

house under the administration of President Hayes. While a mere girl she won good opinions in Washington amateur theatrical circles, and James K. Hackett, on his initial starring tour under the management of D. A. Bonta secured for her a part in the "Private Secretary." Achieving marked success, she then joined the Washington stock company, playing Pauline in "Called Back," the blind girl in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," and Dolly Dutton in "Hazel Kirk." Subsequently, in the Baltimore stock company, she played the ingenue parts in Augustin Daly's comedies: "Seven-Twenty-Eight," "Nancy & Co.," "A Night Off," and other creations of that manager. She has lately been engaged by the Broadhurst brothers for the role of

Minerva, in "What Happened to Jones."

The talk about W. S. Gilbert having been "impressed with the acting of Nat Goodwin and Maxine Elliott" that he is trying to get their permission to write a play for them, moves Franklith Fyies to this scolding, by implication, of the Fool Press Agent, who seldom knows where to stop: The representation of a man of Gilbert's ability and attainments chasing any actor in his desire to write a play for him can be regarded only as humorous. As a librettist Gilbert has no equal and as a dramatist he ranks with the leaders of the present generation. Such plays as "Pygmalion and Galatea" and "Engaged" will never be forgotten.

B. B. Valentine, the author of the laughable Fitznoodle Papers, which have been cast in a stage mold, is one of the most dejected and melancholy looking men that ever found life an intolerable burden. "Ah, friend, the lightest heart hath sometimes heaviest mourning."

A. C. Carson of Columbus, a well-known and able newspaper writer, copyrighted a drama under the title of "Arizona" before Augustus Thomas' fine play of the same name was made public.

Etta Gilroy, the clever and attractive soubrette and dancer, was born in Columbus, Ohio, and made her debut four years ago, with Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" company. She is a sister of Mamie Gilroy and is the wife of John Hyams. She has been engaged for next season for J. J. Rosenthal's "Dear Old Charlie" company.

Ada Rehan, according to a close friend who has lately diagnosed her case, impaired her robust health by her endeavor to study too many characters in the old comedy season inaugurated at Daly's some years ago. During the past three or four winters she has been a semi-invalid, maintaining her place at the head of the company by heroic will power rather than by spontaneous effort. She was a sick woman when she sailed for Europe in the spring. The shock of Mr. Daly's death prostrated his star, and at present Miss Rehan is ill. She had no wish to visit the bungalow, her summer holiday spot in the English lake region, because it was associated with happier days in her history, and this year she is at Ramsgate, a fashionable watering place, nursing her health under a doctor's care. Here, however, comes a new difficulty. With the loss of her health and her manager a considerable share of Ada Rehan's ambition has gone. It is reported that she manifests no particular interest in the future. It is not unlikely that her present disposition of mind and condition of body may bring our actress home again at the end of the summer, and possibly she may open the season at Daly's theater in person. Ada Rehan can now afford to be independent and to regard her own comfort as a matter of greater importance than the amusement of theater-goers. For fifteen years she has received a good salary, and during the last half dozen seasons her earnings have been heavy. She abhors wine, knows nothing of cards, has no love for stylish equipments, and never bets on the races. Beyond her expenditure on housekeeping and Paris gowns she has saved all her money. It is a moderate estimate that places Miss Rehan's estate at $100,000, and this private fortune, joined to the handsome legacy bequeathed to her by Augustin Daly, enables the actress to retire from active life if she so desires.

Charles Barnard has written a condensed history of New Amsterdam, which is to be published as a souvenir of William H. Crane's new Bronson Howard and Brander Matthews' comedy, "Peter Stuyvesant."

"All Men Are Liars" is the title of a new piece from the pen of Charles Dickson, whose additional distinction and good fortune lie in the fact that he is the husband of pretty and talented Lillian Burkhart.

William Lamb, son of the late Edward Lamb, a well-known comedian in his time, and partner of William L.

Malloy some years ago in the business of managing Billy Barry, died recently in East Orange, N. J.

When Gladys Wallis married in June last it was announced that she had permanently retired from the stage. Once we are tired with that stick, not all the multitudinous can make us clean.—Exchange.

Charles Wyndham is to do "Cyranos de Bergerac" in England. Like the good time that was coming to Nicodemus, this English production has been a long, long time on the way.

The cheerful composite theme of Gilbert Murray's drama, "Carlyon Sahib," is made up of cholera germs, infantile, hypnosis, and the brain disease called glioma.

YOU NEED A FIRE...

Ought to Have an Air Tight

Stove for the little blaze for cool mornings and evenings. The stove itself costs but a trifle, is light and takes up no room, will burn anything and a little wood makes plenty of heat; therefore they are economical. Air Tight Stoves will carry fire forty-eight hours, make no dirt, burn their own ashes and make ideal heaters for just this season of the year

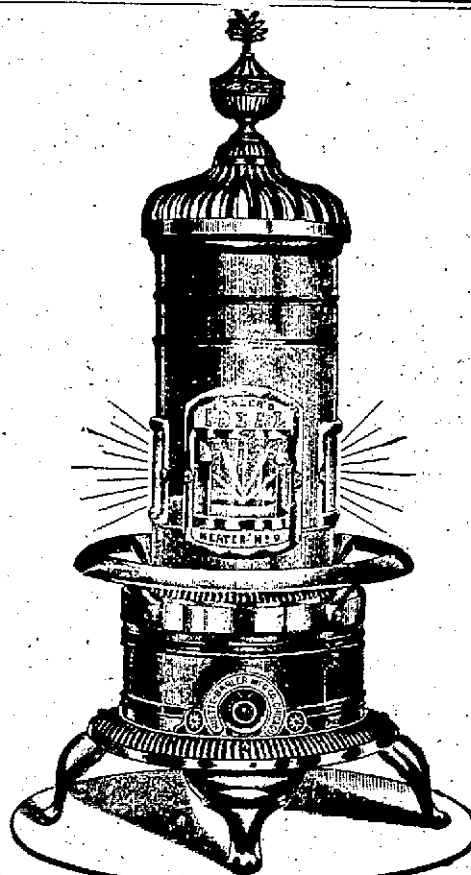

Barler's Ideal

Oil Heater is absolutely the best oil heater on the market. We have proven this point to our own satisfaction and recommend it in the strongest terms possible. The Ideal Heater can be placed anywhere, easily moved, and, unlike other oil heaters, are perfectly odorless; no smoke, plenty of heat, and costs less than one cent an hour to run it; a perfect heater for bedroom, bath room, dining room or sitting room. Over 60,000 Ideal Heaters in use today. They are as effective for constant work in cold weather as for temporary work spring and fall.

Buggy Tastes are Changing

The monotonous style of vehicle of a few years ago does not find place with the up-to-date buyer of today.

The demand for rigs of natty appearance increases each season. This year the swell turnouts combine comfort with style. The open runabout buggy with elliptic springs and rubber tires, or the top buggies with rubber tires, have a tendency to make the person who has no outfit a trifle envious. Handsome Buggies do not cost as much as you think for. Prices are reasonable and the rigs are the best.

WONDERFUL BOOK OFFER

THE WAR WITH SPAIN and in the Philippines having made it self-evident to all Americans that although they are recognized the world over as being the greatest nation of readers and thinkers the world has ever produced they have [sadly neglected one of the most important of all the branches of human knowledge—HISTORY. The metropolitan newspapers, recognizing that fact, have placed several histories of more or less merit before the people through their columns. The great trouble has been, though, that the cure has been worse than the disease. All of them are ONE-MAN CONCERNS. A great Chicago Lawyer, commenting on that fact, said: "It takes a very smart man, a very great man, to write a history of his own country, but an angel or a devil could not write a history of the other fellow's country."

Imagine that lonely essayist cuddled in his den in Kalamazoo, say, letting his fancy fly around the earth, stopping now on some mountain peak to gaze wistfully over some vast and trackless plain, now on some chimney top while gazing into the teeming city beneath for facts which were hidden by distance and time, and, for want of a peep into annals, impossible of access, he must fill in with fiction.

History is a debatable land. It lies on the confines of two distinct territories. It is under the jurisdiction of two hostile powers. Instead of being equally governed by reason and imagination, it falls alternately under the sole and absolute dominion of each. It is sometimes fiction. It is sometimes theory. THAT IS THE RULE, and it is because of it that the great historian is rare, and the one-man history is not worth a snap and gives satisfaction to but one man—the historian.

The great historian must possess an imagination sufficiently powerful to make his narrative picturesque; yet he must control it so absolutely as to content himself with the materials which he finds, and refrain from supplying deficiencies with inventions. In addition, he must be a profound and ingenious reasoner, yet he must possess sufficient self-command to abstain from twisting facts into hypotheses. That, the one man with his natural sympathy for one country and its people and his just as natural want of it for another, cannot do.

Knowing that among The Gazette's subscribers there are hundreds who are casting around for the best work attainable of this nature, we have arranged to offer the grandest series of histories the world has ever known. It would have been impossible to offer such an opportunity were it not for the fact that a merry war is in full swing between the independent publisher and the book trust. When this great set of histories was placed on the market the combine commenced to fire the one-man histories on the market through the metropolitan dailies whose influence was depended on to drive this magnificent "NATIONS OF THE WORLD" off the market. But the publisher declares he will give the people $1,000,000 worth of fun and $1,000,000 worth of history during the engagement, and this is how he proposes to do it:

This publishing house, being for the last twenty years closer to the people than any other in America, proposes to reach them through the papers which are closest to them. Therefore it offers 100 sets which Gazette subscribers can have at exactly half the regular prices. As that is all that will under any circumstances be offered those desirous of securing a set must be lively about it. 200 sets were disposed of in Danville, Ill., in just 4 days. You can see the full set of books at JOYCE BROS., W Milwaukee St, or fill out coupon and the representative of the publisher will call at your house and show them.

NOW don't be under the impression that these histories, or any of them are not strictly up-to-date. France is taken up where Guizot left off in 1848 and is brought down to the Dreyfus case by competent writers of today; England, which Green left off at Waterloo, is taken down to Omdurman; the U. S. to the ratification of the treaty with Spain in like manner. Gibbon's Rome is the only history in the lot that is left as originally finished by author for obvious reasons.

NATIONS OF THE WORLD

The histories now ready for delivery are acknowledged the world over, to be the standard histories of the various countries treated. Guizot is the most celebrated of historians. Green's England is the scholarly work of a scholarly man, and has been perused by hundreds of thousands of English and American readers. Hawthorne's United States was compiled for this series. Prescott and Abbott are "household words." The series contains the following works:
